

#Blessed—Blessed are Those Whose Hearts are Pure

Jason Hall
April 7, 2019 - 1914

“God blesses those whose hearts are pure, for they will see God. .”

Matthew 5:8 (NLT)

1. _____ and _____ the
impurity of our own hearts.

*“The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked.
Who really knows how bad it is.”*

Jeremiah 17:9 (NLT)

“For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God’s glorious standard.”

Romans 3:23 (NLT)

2. Look to the _____ who can give us new _____.

“But God has shown us a way to be made right with him without keeping the requirements of the law, as was promised in the writings of Moses and the prophets long ago. We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus Christ. And this is true for everyone who believes, no matter who we are.”

Romans 3:21-22 (NLT)

3. A pure heart is the only _____ through which we may _____.

Connecting people to Jesus through intentional relationships with one another.

Small Group Discussion Opportunities

Read Matthew 5:1-11, discuss these questions together:

1. What do you learn about Jesus in this passage?
2. Read verse 8 together again. What does it mean to be spiritually poor to you?
3. Read Romans 3:20-23 together. What does this passage tell us about our own purity? What has Jesus done for us according to this passage?
4. Where have you see God as work this week?
5. What is something you can do this week so that someone can see God as work through you?
