Small Group Discussion Opportunities

Read Romans 1:1-2:16 and discuss these questions together:

Passage Specific

1. What is the "good news" that Paul refers to? Why is it "good"?
2. What is God demonstrating His anger against?
3. In Chapter 2, Paul says God will give eternal life to those who do two things. What are they?

Life Oriented Questions

1. What do we learn about God in this passage?
2. What do we learn about man/us from this passage?
3. What is God saying specifically to you through this passage as it pertains to your life, family, and work?
4. Considering what you've learned today, what is a next step you need to take in following Jesus with others?

September Prayer Focus: Bible Translation

We thank you for your son Jesus, the Word of life and for revealing yourself through your holy scriptures that we might know your character and love for us. We pray for those peoples around the globe who do not have access to Bibles in a language that they can truly understand, the language that speaks their deepest hopes and fears, the language that their own people speak. We ask for you to overcome hostile religious and political barriers so that Bible translations can begin in all languages that still do not have your Word. We ask for you to raise up men and women of peace in each language who can help with translation projects for their people; would you keep them safe in the process. Protect your word and those who need to translate while hiding from hostile influences. Unravel the linguistic complexities of each language to express the beauty and truth of your Word and give wisdom and attention to consultants who will check your words for accuracy, clarity and naturalness in each situation. And Lord raise up individuals who will understand your Word and reveal its truth that your Word would bear much fruit. - Amen
